Respected Sir.

As my house in Basavangudi Census No 107 near Anjaneya Temple Extension is still incomplete and requires further improvement, I humbly beg that I may be granted an advance of six months pay so that I may complete my house.

The one years advance granted to me has been fully paid up.

For which act of kindness I shall ever pray.

after his personal inspection of the as houses to build which the advance has now been applied for

I would recommend to

to make these advances, s all the advances have been cleared or very nearly so, and the fact of some of them being encumbered by mortgages does not deteriorate from their v lue and the extra building will enchance it and eventually help to pay off the present encumbrances.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most Obedient Servant.

Inspection Report on the house of A. V. Nanjundiah clerk, Rev: Gl: Secretariat-d. d. Census office situated in Basavangudi Extension.

I inspected the house S.C. No 3 on the 3rd Inst

From the Books of this office it is found that the original loan of Rs 480 has been fully adjusted.

The improvements suggested by the owner are putting up a plaster loft in the hall, constructing a varandah & two rooms in front and a bath room behind.

The rough valuation of the house is Rs 525/-

The owner alleges that the house is not encumbered.

Advance applied for may if is submitted be granted.
